

Edmonton Services Community Disability Services Practitioner

Join a team that has passion for making a difference! An exciting and challenging one year full-time Community Disability Services Practitioner employment opportunity is now available within Edmonton Services. Hours of work will be 37.5 hours a week, Monday to Friday.

Chrysalis is truly about people and recognizing the value that every individual contributes to make each day meaningful. Are you an advocate for quality client care and looking to experience change, growth and opportunity? Then this could be your chance.

Overview

The primary role of the Community Disability Services Practitioner is to ensure individuals are fully engaged in community opportunities for personal growth. The individuals' personal interests and abilities guide these opportunities. It is a responsibility of the Community Disability Services Practitioner to ensure the safety and well being of all individuals and colleagues. The Community Disability Services Practitioner is an ambassador of the organization and supports community involvement, recognizing abilities, respect, and empowerment and supporting individuals to develop social networks. This position is required to follow service delivery standards and organizational policies and procedures.

Key Skills:

Demonstration of excellent interpersonal, organizational, oral and written skills as well as the ability to be flexible and adaptable with changes in case/site management as request by a Supervisory Team Member. It will also be a necessity of this position to demonstrate energy and enthusiasm regarding working with individuals with developmental disabilities in a team environment. This person must be motivated and a passionate advocate of individuals served by Chrysalis who also has the ability to articulate the mission and vision of our organization.

Edmonton Services Community Disability Services Practitioner

Qualifications:

This position requires a diploma or degree in rehabilitation, disabilities or related field, or an equivalent of secondary education plus related experience. The Community Disability Services Practitioner must also be able to do lifting, transferring and personal care of individuals. A valid Emergency First Aid/CPR, Medication Administration and current Criminal Record Check or a pardoned of convictions are a requisite.

Please submit your resume and cover letter stating salary expectations by Friday, July 15, 2010 @ 4pm to:

Chrysalis, Human Resources

Fax: (780) 451-2540

Email: jennad@chrysalis.ab.ca
